About twenty people took advan-

some of the ladies but all made the ascent after resting at different points. Upon the arrival at the top the party partook of a light lunch of dainty wafers and fruit. The descent was made late in the afternoon.
There were a few with stiff limbs the next day. Regardless of this everyone is ready to make the climb again.

Charles G. Fothergill, Corporal 13th Battalion, Royal Highlanders of Canada, is back and on his old run firing trains 13 and 14 with engineer Oliver Duffie after an absence of over one year. It was with some disappointment that he returned from England instead of going to the front with his regiment, owing to his not recovering sufficiently from pneumonia contracted at Salisbury Plains. Mr.
Fothergill's younger brother, who went to the front in the 13th Battalion, was wounded, taken prisoner by the Germans and is now in a hospital in Stendal, Germany.

On Saturday evening last school and classmates of Mabel Osborne to the number of nearly twenty, gathered at her home on Derby street, the occasion being her 15th birthday anniversary. The party, which was a complete surprise to the young lady, proved a jolly time for all, new and antiquated games being played and musical selections rendered by several members of the party. A dainty collation was served and upon the departure of the guests "many happy returns of the day" was the friendly expression passed. Many pretty tokens of friendship were received by Miss Osborne which will be pleasant memories of the happy event.

L. F. JONES, DRY GOODS

"The Devil's Daughter" to be shown at the Idlehour Theatre, Tuesday, Oct. 26, presented by the Fox Film Corporation is the best picture ever produced portraying the Vampire Woman. Her curse unto all is, "As this man has done to me, so shall I do to all men. From now on my heart is ice, my passion consuming fire. Let all men Beware." Upon these few words the whole story is based, with Theda Bara in the leading role and the help of scenes cleverly arranged it is a photoplay supreme.

Her Kiss is death; her love red flame, That scorches like a white-hot brand;
But luring lightning in her eyes Beckons to that forbidden land Where blasted lives, like hollow skulls,
Lie whitening in the sun-bit sand.
The Devil's Daughter takes cruel toll,
Her blood-red lips are smiling lies
That lull her fools in her white arms.
And mock them in their parting breath,
And laugh to see their fell work done,
As, cursing, gulls go down to death.

Silver Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Blake.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E.
Blake was the scene of a most delightful event last Saturday evening, when about thirty friends and neighbors marched into the house to give Elbridge and his wife a surprise, the occasion being their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The visit was so unexpected that Elbridge had to be sent for, and when he arrived he appeared somewhat dazed.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake were the recipients of a coffee percolator, a large soup ladle and sugar tongs, the presentation being made by Rev. O. E. Barnard. Mr. Blake feelingly responded, voicing the appreciation of himself and wife for the gifts and the presence of their friends on the occasion.

Miss Kathleen Foster sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold." Roy Chesney gave a comic reading. Refreshments were served. A social time was enjoyed and everybody returned home feeling younger in having reminded others of their youthful days.

Best Paint

What is it?
Devoe.
How Devoe?
It's 160 years old; but that isn't how.
It has long been the best; but that isn't how.
It has been developed by use and study, by study and use; that is how;
and approved by experience, many years; that's how.
It commends itself by long lasting and small paint-cost; not cheap by the gallon, but cheap by the job and cheap by the year and ten years, cheap by the lifetime.
That's how. DEVOE
